PART 2
The Promise of the Holy Spirit
- A Promise Kept

The starting point for a vibrant pneumatology is to recognize the Holy Spirit as a person.

Our Daily Prayer of Surrender

Holy Spirit, fill me. I invite you to take charge of my life today. Let me know you more sweetly, deeply, and personally than ever before. I surrender to you. Holy Spirit come, take me over!

Along with the person of the Holy Spirit, another vital piece to a vibrant pneumatology is the promise of the Holy Spirit.

JOEL 2:28-29

"I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in [the last] days."

ACTS 1:4-5

"Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak of. For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

ACTS 2:38-39

“Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise is for you, your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call.”

THE POWER OF A PROMISE

With God, a promise made is a promise kept—which is true of his promise of the Spirit to us.

ROMANS 15:13

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."
