Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe and many wonders and miraculous signs were done by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common.

Selling their possessions and goods, they gave to anyone as he had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

"They worshiped together at the Temple each day, and met in small groups in homes for Communion, sharing their meals with great joy and thankfulness."

Verse 46, Living Bible

A.W. TOZER

"One hundred pianos all tuned to the same fork are automatically tuned to each other. They are of one accord by being tuned, not to each other, but to another standard to which each must individually bow. So one hundred worshipers meeting together, each one looking to Christ, are in heart nearer to each other than they could possibly be were they [to strive for unity through fellowship apart from corporately worshiping God.]"

Celebration

ties us together by tuning us to God.

---

Cell

fine-tunes us to God by further tying us together

Accountability

As iron sharpens iron, a friend sharpens a friend.

Proverbs 27:17, NLB

An enemy will shower you with kisses, but a true friend
may need to wound you.

Proverbs 27:6

Verbal rebuke is better than silent love.

Proverbs 27:5

Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Intimacy

Adam walked with God in unfettered intimacy, yet God himself declared that Adam needed human connectedness.

Acts 18:24-26

"Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos came to Ephesus. He knew Scripture well and he preached about Jesus fervently, but he really only knew of John's baptism. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him speaking boldly in the synagogue, they invited him into their home and explained the way of God more accurately."

Opportunity

Priscilla and Aquila invited Apollos into their home and explained to him the way of God more adequately... When he arrived in Achaia, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. For he vigorously refuted his Jewish opponents in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

Acts 18:26 & 28

You

What will you do to move from being tuned to God in celebration to being tied to us in cell?

Hebrews 10:24-25

"And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds. Let us not give up meeting together as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching."
