

A Holy Spirit Inspired
Song

"These instructions aren't empty words—they are your life! Obey them and you will enjoy a long life in the land."

DEUTERONOMY 32:47

Sound
Songology

If our songology is flawed—no matter how lovely the lyrics, moving the melody, or popular the performer—we ought to exclude the song from our worship.

DEFINED

When God's Word has been preached in the worship songs, there you have a great worship set.

"Next to God's Word, music deserves the highest praise. The gift of language combined with the gift of song was given to man that he should proclaim the Word of God through music."

MARTIN LUTHER

The Songology of King David

"King David appointed the families of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun to proclaim God's messages to the accompaniment of lyres, harps, and cymbals."

1 CHRONICLES 25:1

Songology Broadly Defined

Offering all of our lives before God at all times as worship.

"For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Therefore, I urge you, because of who God is and all he has done, to offer your entire life as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your spiritual worship."

ROMANS 11:36-12:1

Songology Narrowly Defined

Lifting our music and singing to God as we gather.

The narrow sense of worship must be defined and controlled by the broader sense of worship: to please God.

"Everything is from him, through him and for him."

ROMANS 11:36

A Sound Songology

Worship ought to be about proclaiming what God wants to hear and to be heard.

"To proclaim God's messages to the accompaniment of [music.]"

Great Worship

When the Word of God was preached in the worship set, there you had a great worship service.

A Personal
Songology

With both mind and heart, whenever you worship, proclaim and embrace God's Word.

"These instructions aren't empty words—they are your life! Obey them and you will enjoy a long life."
